LOCATION OF THE CONFERENCE

Kasteel De Berckt

De Berckt 1

5991 PD Baarlo

The Netherlands

The meetings of the conference take place in the 'Farm House' of the De Berckt estate.

Parents are responsible for watching their children regardless of age outside the regular meeting times.

Elim Springs has exclusive use of the facility during the conference; however, the property is extensive and there are hazards such as ponds and creeks.

You can arrive and pick up your outline on Friday, 27 October 2023 from 4 p.m.

ACCOMMODATION

For those staying at the Kasteel

Friday dinner will be available from 17:30 to 19:00. Please let us know if you will be arriving after 19:00 and will still need dinner. Please be aware that the first meeting starts at 19:30.

Linen and towels will be provided but please remember to bring your own hand soap and toiletries. Please note that most bathrooms are wet rooms. It may be advisable to bring shower shoes. Please also bring a torch and an umbrella.

If you indicated that you do not need a bed for a 0-2 year old, please bring bedding and towels for them as it will not be provided.

Please note that if the capacity for the Kasteel has been reached we will close this option in the registration form.

Day Visitors (those staying at another location)

There are various options for those who choose to just join the conference for the day. The registration for Day Visitor covers the whole weekend. You have the option to choose meals and no meals.

Please find below links to find your accommodation, either in Germany or the Netherlands.

There is the possibility to rent a caravan in the nearby holiday park. Elim Springs will not help or organise to rent caravans. Please book the caravans directly.

ARRIVAL AND PUBLIC TRANSPORT INSTRUCTIONS

Address:

Kasteel De Berckt

De Berckt 1

5991 PD Baarlo

The Netherlands

Getting There

We recommend arriving by car.

There are parking spaces available at the Kasteel. Parking is free. The facility is equipped with video cameras.

Public transport

Please note: for public transport in the Netherlands there is now OV chip card required, a chip card valid on buses, trams, subways and trains. It is recommended to buy an "anonymous" OV-chipkaart at a train station or corner shop. This chip card costs 7.50 Euros and must be topped up with additional credit at a service counter or (NS) ticket machine with the pink OV chipkaart logo. There must be at least 4 Euro credit on your anonymous OV chip card in order to be able to travel by bus, tram or subway. Make sure you always check in with your card when boarding the bus and check out with your card on arrival.

Bus

Bus 377 departs from Venlo train station every 30 minutes from Monday to Friday between 6 a.m. and 10 a.m. and every hour at all other operating times. The bus stop for the Kasteel is called 'De Berckt, Baarlo, Limburg' and is on the main street just outside the entrance to the Kasteel. Please check the timetable online or at the station. The last bus leaves at 11:06 p.m. The bus fare between Venlo train station and Kasteel is 2.49 Euros one way.

To rent a coach online, you can use <http://www.busfinder.com>.
